

Male Athlete of the Year 2012- Evan Walshe

Evan is a very popular winner of the Male Athlete of the year. The nearly man on so many occasions with a string of second place finishes, finally took gold in June of this year with a scintillating run in the Dublin U11 600 metres.

It was a well deserved victory and was probably the highlight of another very consistent year.

Evan also represented Blackrock at the under 11 600 metres Team All Ireland competition in Cork and ran a personal best of 1 min 58 secs.

A pupil of Holly Park National School, he more recently capped another very impressive XC campaign with five second place finishes including the race of the day!! at Marlay Park when he was pipped for first place in the U11 Dublin Counties 1500m.

Evan has also demonstrated the true value of sportsmanship and is always first to congratulate those who participate with him in any given race.

“A true champion”

Evan was presented with his award from last year’s winner, Sean Kinsella.

Well done Evan.
